Otsuka Foods to Revise Prices of Bon Curry Sold Only in Okinawa

New Prices to Take Effect with Deliveries as of June 1, 2022

TOKYO, Japan, April 27, 2022—Otsuka Foods Co., Ltd. (Head Office: Chuo Ward, Osaka; President: Koichi Shiraishi) announced today that it will revise the suggested retail prices of Bon Curry sold only in Okinawa for deliveries made starting June 1, 2022.

This price revision is being implemented in response to the recent surge in raw material prices and the rise in logistics costs. The company has been making various efforts and striving to rationalize its business, such as improving productivity, streamlining logistics, and reducing various costs, but it has become difficult to maintain the existing price structure. Accordingly, it has decided to revise the prices of the products listed below.

Going forward, Otsuka Foods will keep striving to improve efficiency through corporate efforts and to provide high-quality products that create new value.

1. Price revision date: From deliveries on June 1, 2022
