Otsuka Foods to Release “100kcal My Size Soy Meat Beef Curry Type” and “100kcal My Size Soy Meat Hashed Beef Type”

New My Size Items Made with Popular Soy Meat
In Stores Across Japan on February 17, 2020

TOKYO, Japan, January 20, 2020 — Otsuka Foods Co., Ltd. (Head Office: Chuo Ward, Osaka; President: Atsumasa Makise) announced today that it will start selling two new items in the My Size series—100kcal My Size Soy Meat Beef Curry Type and 100kcal My Size Soy Meat Hashed Beef Type—across Japan on February 17, 2020.

The two items in the new 100kcal My Size Soy Meat series use soy meat^{*1} as an ingredient for even more satisfying curry and hashed beef. The sauce provides a full-bodied, mellow beef savoriness^{*2} for more delicious taste.

*1. Soy meat is a processed food derived from soybeans with the appearance and texture of meat.

*2. Sauce contains beef extract.
